

SPIRITUAL GIFTS

ADMINISTRATION

The gift of administration means you are skilled at developing, articulating and accomplishing tasks for the accomplishment of the objectives for the Body.

APOSTLESHIP

The gift of apostleship means you are able to articulate the Gospel in places that are geographically, socially, ethnically or culturally different from one's background.

DISCERNMENT

The gift of discernment allows you to perceive the motives, intentions and sincerity of others within relationships of the local church.

ENCOURAGEMENT

The gift of encouragement allows you to counsel, model and encourage people through one's personal testimony, life and Scripture so people are comforted and encouraged to act.

EVANGELISM

The gift of evangelism assists you in sharing the Good News of Christ in a relevant manner with people far from Christ, so they respond positively to become disciples of Jesus Christ.

FAITH

The gift of faith helps you envision with clarity and confidence God's future direction and goals for the Body of Christ.

GIVING

The gift of giving allows you to give liberally to meet the needs of others and support God's ministry with the resources which God has entrusted to you.

HOSPITALITY

The gift of hospitality enables you to reach out to others and welcome them into your home and life in a loving, warm manner. These guests feel "at home" in your presence.

KNOWLEDGE

The gift of knowledge allows you to discover, analyze, accumulate, systematize and articulate ideas that are essential for the growth and building up of the Body.

LEADERSHIP

The gift of leadership allows you to set Godly objectives, make decisions and communicate them to the Body of Christ in a way that motivates them to willingly follow and joyously work to accomplish these objectives.

MENTORING

The gift of combining shepherding and teaching assists you in instructing, guiding and caring for believers in a smaller expression of the Body so that they are equipped to reach out in ministry to others, both inside and outside the church.

MERCY

The gift of mercy empowers you to empathize with those in need, especially those suffering and in trauma, and to manifest empathy so those in need are strengthened.

PROPHECY

The gift of prophecy means you are able to publicly or privately speak the Word of God, so people are convicted, consoled, encouraged, challenged or strengthened.

SERVICE

The gift of service means you unselfishly meet the needs of other people through practical service that is most often done behind the scenes.

SHEPHERDING

The gift of shepherding helps you nurture a group of believers by caring for their spiritual welfare in a holistic manner on a longer-term basis.

TEACHING

The gift of teaching helps you to communicate instruction, so members of the Body understand how to apply spiritual principles to their own lives and ministries in every-day context.

WISDOM

The gift of wisdom means you have insight on how knowledge may best be applied to specific needs in the Body of Christ. This involves applying Biblical truths to everyday situations.
