

WEEK 1

READY FOR ADVENTURE?

SCRIPTURE PASSAGE

Genesis 12:1-5 (NIV)

DISCUSSION GUIDE

Deep within every one of us burns a restless yearning - an inner call that stirs, nudges and urges us toward adventure. The spark drives us to chase new horizons: a bold career shift, a fresh place to call home, a transformative way of living, a deeper connection with God or a life shaped by generosity.

Maybe you've felt the same pull that stirred Abraham's heart - a whisper in your soul, a knowing in your bones that you were made for more than where you stand now. You may not see the destination yet, but the call to move, explore and embrace the unknown is undeniable.

Every adventure begins with a single, often daunting, step. For Abraham, that step plunged him into the unknown. Called to abandon his familiar life, his family, his hometown and all he likely knew - he was summoned by Yahweh to journey to an uncertain destination. Genesis 12 offers no clarity on how well Abraham knew Yahweh at the time or where his path would lead.

All he had was an invitation to a God-sized adventure that would lead him to places he'd never imagined. Abraham took the first difficult step on an epic journey of faith, purpose and discovery. Like Abraham, we're invited on a journey with the same destination in mind. We were made for a God-sized adventure in faith, one that was uniquely designed for you by the creator of the universe. A journey that is ready to unfold in ways you can't yet imagine.

But the journey of a lifetime begins with one simple step.

Are you ready? Let's Go!

1. What do you think was difficult about this call on Abraham's life? (Gen 12:1-4)
2. Do you ever wonder if God is calling you to something more?
3. What holds you back when you think about stepping out in faith?
4. In your life, where have you taken a step of faith and how has God met you along the way? (Isa 41:10)

Prayer

Lord, be with our church as we begin this journey together. Be in the hearts of men, women and children across all of our Campuses to be open to what you want to teach us during this season together. Help us listen to you as we study your Word and seek to grow in this discipleship journey of generosity. Our desire is to grow closer to you throughout this journey.
